Bhor, 30 July, 1910.

Sir,

I have the honour to submit the Annual Administration Report of the Bhor State, for the year ending with the 5th June 1910.

CHAPTER I. — GENERAL AND POLITICAL.

2. The area of the State is 925 square miles, the population, 137,268 and the gross revenue (based on the average of past five years) Rs. 472,035-13-8. The tribute, annually payable to Government, is Rs 10,000, in chandwrd coin, but Rs. 5,316 of elephant subsidy are set off against this amount, and the remainder of Rs. 4,684 is actually paid. There exist friendly relations between the State and the British Government, according to the treaty of 1820. I have been honoured with a personal distinction of a salute of nine guns at the coronation Darbar held at Delhi in January 1903. My full name is Shankar rao Ghimnaji Pandit, Pant Sachiv, Chief of Bhor. My age is 53 and I am a deshasthe brahmin by caste. I have a son and a grandson by that son. I have intermarried with the family of the Sardar Vinchurkars.

3. In the month of June 1909, I had the honour to be present, at the Levee and the Reception held by his Excellency the Governor, at Poona, as well as the birth-day Darbar held by the Agent for Sardars in the Deccan. At the time of the Reception, I had an opportunity of meeting the High European Officers such as Councillors and secretaries.

4. I attended the Agricultural Conference, convened in the Council Hall, on the 20th September 1909, in response to a cordial invitation from the inaugurators.

5. I have become a patron of the Deccan Agricultural Association, by contributing Rs. 500.

6. A sum of Rs. 1,000, was paid to Principal Paranjape and Professor Bhanu at their request, as a contribution to the Deccan Education Society's New English School Building fund.

7. The Honourable Sir J. W. P. Muir-Mackenzie, Senior Member of the Executive Council of His Excellency the Governor of Bombay, accompanied by Lady Muir-Mackenzie, was pleased to visit my capital in a motor on the 10th of October 1909, in order to present the Sanad, of the title of Rao Bahadur, to Shridhar Abaji Satbhai my Karbhari. He kindly accepted the usual hospitalities, and presented the Sanad in a Darbar specially held for the purpose. The Honourable guest left for Mahabaleshwar the next day.

8. I had been to Bombay to pay my respects to His Excellency the Viceroy Lord Minto, in the month of November, 1909, when His Excellency was in Bombay during the course of his All-India tour. There I got the pleasant opportunity of being present at the Reception held by His Excellency Lord Minto. His Excellency was also pleased to receive a visit from me I am much indebted to His Excellency for the kindness shown to me by him in the course of the interview.

9. In Bombay, I had the pleasure to attend all the functions held in honour of the visit of His Excellency the Viceroy.

10 His Excellency the Governor favoured me, with a return visit at my residence, in Bombay, on the 25th November 1909.

11. I paid a visit to Benares at the end of November last, in order to inspect my buildings. I returned to Poona on the 16th December 1909

12. I made my usual Jamabandi tour, in the Talukas of Pownmaval and Sudhagad, respectively in the months of December and January.

13. I paid a visit to Pandharpur in February 1910, for the first time, after the construction of the Pandharpur Railway. Mr. Phadke the Mamlatdar of Pandharpur, had kindly made very good arrangements. Mr. Mountford the Collector of Sholapur and Political Agent, was there at the time of my visit. I therefore had the opportunity to pay a visit to Mr. Mountford and receive a return visit from him.

14. In the month of March, I visited Shri Narasinva Wadi and Kolhapur. His Highness the Maharajahsaheb of Kolhapur was pleased to give me a very warm and cordial reception A salute of nine guns was fired to announce my arrival and departure. At Kolhapur I had the pleasure of paying a visit to Major Woodhouse, the Political Agent S. M. C. and also of receiving a return visit from him

15. I am much thankful to His Highness the Maharajahsaheb for the warm hospitality and the kind treatment, which I received at his hands at Kolhapur. I am also indebted to Major Woodhouse, the Political Agent, for the kindness shown to me by him, during my visit to Kolhapur.

16. I completed the Jamabandi of the remaining three Talukas of Prachandgad, Rajgad and Vichitragad in the month of April.

17. Mr. L. C. Swifte, the Political Agent, Poona, paid a visit to Bhor on the 27th April 1910. He accepted the usual hospitalities, visited the various institutions and left for Poona, the next day. The remarks passed by him in regard to the institutions, which he was pleased to visit, will appear under their respective heads.

18. In the month of May I visited Wai, Satara and Mahabaleshwar. I got an opportunity to pay my respects to His Excellency the Governor and the other High Officials of Government, at Mahabaleshwar, when I had been to His Excellency the Governor's 'At Home'.

19. I take this opportunity to express my abhorrence at the dastardly murder of Mr. Jackson the Collector of Nasik, by an anarchist youth. I am however glad to find that the culprits in the crime have been traced and punished. The Government's orders in regard to the forfeiting of pernicious books, pictures, newspapers and magazines, issued under the New Press Act, are wise and I have no doubt that they will produce the desired effect and save the youth of India from the dangerous influences which are being brought to bear upon it.

20 Although this State is absolutely free from such evil tendencies, I have taken precautionary steps, with your approval, to prevent the remote possibility of such tendencies ever to find their way here. Orders have also been issued to forfeit to the State such newspapers, books, pamphlets, & as are declared to be pernicious and likely to create disaffection in the minds of the public, in the Government Gazette Part I dated 7th April 1910.

21. I note with satisfaction, a sympathetic reference, to the pernicious practice of black mailing of Princes and Chiefs by unworthy papers in British India, in a speech delivered by His Excellency the Governor at Jamnagar.

22. I take this opportunity to give expression to my deepest feelings of grief at the most sad and unlooked-for demise of His Most Gracious Majesty King and Emperor Edward VII, who succumbed to a bronchial attack, on the 6th of May last. He had paid a visit to India in the year 1875 and got himself acquainted with the Princes and Chiefs in this country, as well as the social condition of the people of India. He ardently loved his people and exerted with heart and soul for their welfare. During a short but successful reign of nine years he became immensely popular and is known as the Peace-maker. The Indians-nay-the people all over the world are naturally mourning the irreparable loss of such a great and sympathetic Ruler. At the time of his accession he had announced his intention to walk in the footsteps of his beloved and revered mother and abide by the Great Proclamation of 1858, addressed by the late Queen Victoria the Good to the Princes and peoples of India. Now after his departure, we find that he has fully and admirably kept up his pledges.

23. His Majesty the King Emperor George V had also come out to India with his noble consort in the year 1905, in order to acquaint himself personally with his Indian subjects and their customs and traditions. I am gratified to see that our beloved King Emperor George V, has, in a letter published in Extraordinary Government Gazette Part I dated 27th May 1910, addressed by him to the Princes and peoples of India, with greetings offered his heartfelt thanks for the touching and abundant manifestations of sympathy and loyalty to the throne from the Princes and peoples of diverse races and faiths in India, and announced his intention to walk in the footsteps of his father of honoured and beloved name, and abide by the spirit of the Proclamation of 1858.

24. I humbly desire to offer my most respectful, loyal and sincere congratulations to His Majesty King Emperor George V on his accession to the imperial throne, and assure him, my dutiful and hearty cooperation in all his efforts for the well-being of India, in response to the last sentence of his letter.

25. We the Princes and peoples of India, are enjoying peace and happiness, under the benign protection and suzerainty of the British Government. May God grant our beloved King Emperor, long life and prosperity, and pour His choicest blessings upon His Majesty.

26. I am much indebted to His Excellency the Governor in Council, for their resolution intimated to me, by the Political Agent, under No. Pol. 530 dated 19th November 1909, to grant me, lands and villages, in exchange for the territory belonging to me, that will be taken up by Government, for the purposes of the extention of the Bhatgar and Veer water-works, in conformity with the decision, arrived at by the Government of India, in regard to the acquision of lands, for Railway purposes and referred to by His Excellency Lord Minto in a speech at Jaipur.

27. It is our most loyal and grateful duty to be always ready to help and cooperate with Government in their efforts to root out the spirit of anarchism which has shown itself in too many parts of India. The words from the speech of His Excellency the Governor, delivered at Jamnagar to the same effect, deserve prompt and hearty response from all the Princes and Chiefs in India.

"Visited and found all in order. The number of convicts is 16 - Undertrial one. The premises are well kept and the improvements recommended by the former Political Agent in 1908, have been carried out. Care should be taken that prisoners sentenced to hard labour really have to perform it, as a light task will make the imprisonment lose much of its deterrent effect. Irrigation in the jail compound should be carried on as sparingly as possible, otherwise it may result in fever for the convicts.

(Sd.) L. C. Swifte,
Political Agent.

83. The above remarks will show that the jail is well managed in all respects. Special regard is also paid to the discipline and sanitary condition of the prisoners.

84. I have issued orders to the jailor to give effect to your suggestion in regard to the prisoners sentenced to hard labour.

Prompt measures were taken by the special officers and servants appointed in plague days, to afford medical and other help to the needy poor. An attempt was also made in the direction of rat-destruction, and great efforts were made to induce the people to get themselves inoculated by offering a reward of as 8 per head to all persons who voluntarily came forth for inoculation. 95. Appendix XX will show the state of agriculture and agricultural stock The small number of bullocks was erroneously inserted in the last year's report, through a clerical mistake. The correct number for the last year was 26,524.

96. The rates of births and deaths will be seen from Appendix XXIV. They are normal.

"It gave me great satisfaction to visit the hospital again. Everything seemed to be in the best possible order. It would be well if the people of the State took greater advantage of the facilities provided for them."

10th October 1909. } (Sd.) J. Muir Mackenzie.

"The dispensary continues to be maintained in excellent order and with complete equipment. The building is one of the most commodious I have seen for an institution of this nature. The prevalent diseases in the town are Malaria and Worms. It would be well if the Municipality could be induced to take the systematic ante-malarial measures as a prophylactic step, by appointing a small committee to do away with the mosquito breeding pools and the like. Attention should be paid to the prevention of leakage of water - a commodity of which the town enjoys an excellent supply free. It is also suggested that some direct executive powers be given to the municipal health officer so that prompt and adequate measures may be taken for the prevention of disease. The dispensary affords every facility for cure, but as everybody knows 'prevention is better than cure'. The question of entertaining a trained midwife to assist in delivery cases might also be considered with advantage, as funds permit.

28th April 1910. } (Sd.) L. C. Swifte,
Political Agent, Poona.

108. These remarks speak for the efficient management of the dispensary.

109. There are three vaccinators and one inspector, entrusted with the work of vaccination. A special assistant is also occasionally given to help the vaccinators, when there is pressure of work.

110. During the year of report, the number of vaccinations was 3,619.

111. The number of vaccinations done with glycerinated preserved lymph, was 76.

112 Sanitation of 155 villages was inspected by the Sanitary Inspector along with vaccination work.

113. The figures relating to births and deaths for the year under report, contrasting with those of the last year are given in the following table :—

| | Past year. | Present year. | Increase. | Decrease. |
|---|---|---|---|---|
| Births ... ... ... ... | 5,463 | 5,264 | ..... | 199 |
| Deaths ... ... ... ... | 3,409 | 3,829 | 420 | ..... |

114. Accuracy of registration was ensured by prompt measures. This will be seen from Appendix XXIV.

CHAPTER VII. — EDUCATION.

115. The progress of education in the State is satisfactory. The number of schools in the State was 48 during the year of report as against 40 of the last year. There were in all 1,767 pupils, taking their instruction in the schools at the end of the year under report, while last year the number was 1,604. Of them 1,545 were boys and 222 were girls. Eight new schools of free primary education, have been opened during the year of report. Instruction is imparted up to the University Matriculation and the School Final Examinations.

116. The schools in the State are examined by the State Shaladhikari and the Deputy and Assistant Deputy Educational Inspectors of Poona, Satara and Kolaba Districts.

117. During the year of report, four students were sent up for the Matriculation Examination and two of them came out successful. Two candidates appeared for the School Final, both of whom passed. One student appeared for the third grade Drawing Examination, who has duly passed. Three appeared for the first grade, of whom two have come out successful. One student appeared for the Teacher's Examination and got success.

118. 14 Teachers got promotion, during the year of report, on the recommendation of the Deputy Educational Inspectors.

119. One more graduate has been appointed in the High School, duriug the year of report.

120. The time of passing any remarks as to the effects of the new primary schools has not yet come, as the schools have been recently opened.

121. Particulars of the schools maintained by the State during the year of report, are given in Appendix XXV.

122. The remarks made on the Bhor High School by the Political Agent, are reproduced below :—

"Visited again after an interval of more than five years. Owing to the unfortunate out-break of plague, which has only recently subsided, the number of boys has decreased from 136 to 87. Now that the plague is over, it is to be hoped that the number will rapidly rise again. This High School is an admirable institution and the educated classes of Bhor are very fortunate to have it at their doors. The teaching is good as evidenced by the vigour and intelligence with which recitations are delivered, while the singing gives evidence of careful and discriminating training. Education in the Bhor State certainly receives a full measure of attention from the authorities."

28th April 1910. } (Sd.) L. C. Swifte,
Political Agent.

CHAPTER VIII.

123. There is one Printing Press in the town of Bhor in this State, and also one Library. The Press only works to fulfil the various official requirements for forms &c. The Library is situated in a separate room of the High School Building. It is entirely supported by the State and is open to the public free of charge.

124. The scale of paying rewards for the destruction of wild animals and venomous snakes is similar to that in force in the British Territory. During the year of report, 8 panthers and 17 snakes were killed and the rewards paid on those accounts, respectively amount to Rs. 51 and Rs. 2-6.

125. It will be seen from the above that the administration of the State continued to be satisfactory, as before, during the year of report. Although there was a slight decrease in the rain-fall, crops did not suffer much. There was no scarcity of corn, water or fodder. General condition of the people was good and fair. No pestilence of any kind did affect the State, except that the town of Bhor was attacked by plague. At that time great efforts were made to mitigate the epidemic, which it will be seen has affected the working of almost all the departments of the State. No offence of murder, culpable homicide, robbery or dacoity was reported during the year. The Forest Department also worked satisfactorily. A larger amount than that of the last year, was sanctioned for works of public utility. All the Criminal and Civil Courts efficiently carried on the work of administering justice. There was a decrease in the number of suits as well as documents received for registration on account of plague at Bhor. Due attention was given to the work of sanitation. More schools have been opened and a greater amount has been expended on the Educational Department. The remarks passed by the distinguished visitors on the condition of the Charitable Dispensary at Bhor will show that it has been receiving due attention from the State.

126. I am much indebted to you for your valuable advice and support, which have enabled me to carry on the administration of my State efficiently. I am also glad to state that sedition has not made its way in this State. I have already taken precautionary steps to prevent its appearance, with the approval of the Political Agent.

127. In conclusion, I have to express my sense of deep debt of gratitude to your predecessor Mr. L. Robertson for his kindness in passing favourable remarks on the last year's report and to the Honourable the Commissioner C. D. and to Government for having been pleased to concur with Mr. L. Robertson. The remarks run as follows:— "The Chief continues to adhere with stead-fast purpose to his policy of loyal co-operation with the British Government and his administration is marked by a high degree of efficiency, the result mainly of his own keen interest in the work of every department."

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

SHUNKARRAO,

Chief of Bhor.
